About the Cover

The Cliffs of Moher

Situated in County Clare on the Irish west coast Wild Atlantic Way and bordering the Burren Area, the Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most spectacular sights. Standing 230 meters above the ground at their highest point and 8km long, the Cliffs boast one of the most amazing views in Ireland. On a clear day, the Aran Islands are visible in Galway Bay as well as the valleys and hills of Connemara. The cliffs rank among the most visited tourist sites in Ireland, with around 1.5 million visits per year.

The cliffs take their name from an old promontory fort called Mothar or Moher, which once stood on Hag's Head, the southernmost point of the cliffed coast, now the site of Moher Tower. The writer Thomas Johnson Westropp referred to it in 1905 as Moher Uí Ruis or Moher Uí Ruidhin. The fort still stood in 1780 and is mentioned in an account from John Lloyd's A Short Tour Of Clare (1780). It was demolished in 1808 to provide material for a lookout/telegraph tower that was intended to provide warning in case of a French invasion during the Napoleonic wars.

O'Brien's Tower, pictured on the cover, was built on the cliffs in 1835 by local landlord Sir Cornelius O'Brien as an observation tower for the English tourists who frequented the cliffs at the time: "strangers visiting the Magnificent Scenery of this neighbourhood". It is said to have initially served as a teahouse, featuring a large round table with seats of ironwork. Another version tells of O'Brien building the tower in order to impress women he was courting.

The Cliffs of Moher have appeared in numerous media. In cinema, the cliffs have appeared in several films, including The Princess Bride (1987) (as the filming location for "The Cliffs of Insanity"), Harry Potter and the Half-Blood Prince (2009), and Leap Year (2010). In music, the cliffs have been the scene for music videos, including Maroon 5's "Runaway", Westlife's "My Love", and Rich Mullins' "The Color Green". There is also an Irish fiddle tune called The Cliffs Of Moher.

You are advised to dress warmly when visiting the cliffs because of the cool Atlantic winds blowing in off the ocean. Nevertheless, a walk along the cliffs is not to be missed. Be very careful as there are no safety barriers and sections of the cliff sometimes give way. Those with a head for heights can easily walk to the edge of the cliff and view the Atlantic Ocean below. The Cliffs of Moher are one of Ireland's most visited attractions and when you've been there, you'll know why.

Inisfail Inc.

In January 1999, the brothers of the Father Kelley Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians contemplated staging a St. Patrick's Day Parade for the City of Manassas. We were very proud of our Irish heritage and wanted to share it with the community. We worked for the next 15 months to put on our Inaugural Greater Manassas St. Patrick's Day Parade on March 18, 2000.

Due to the overwhelming support of the community and the success of the Inaugural Parade, we incorporated as a nonprofit organization for future parades. We have now held a parade for twenty-three years which is a highly anticipated event in our community.

We took the name Inisfail from the ancient, pre-Christian for Ireland that signifies Isle of destiny. Today, we celebrate the Gaelic culture that began long ago and has developed over the centuries.

We, in Inisfail, thank you for your support of our parade and hope that you have a great time here in Manassas today.

Happy St. Patricks Day!

Inisfail, Inc. wishes to express its gratitude to the City of Manassas for the assistance it has provided in organizing and planning this parade. This is now an annual event that adds to the culture and character of Manassas. Without the support of the City, this would not happen.

HISTORY OF ST. PATRICK

St. Patrick of Ireland is one of the world's most popular saints. He was born in Roman Britain and when he was 14 or so, he was captured by Irish pirates during a raiding party and taken to Ireland as a slave to herd and tend sheep. Patrick's captivity lasted until he was 20, when he escaped after having a dream in which he was told by God to leave Ireland by going to the coast. There he found some sailors who took him back to Britain and he was reunited with his family.

A few years after returning home, Patrick saw a vision he described in his memoir: "I saw a man coming, as it were from Ireland. His name was Victorinus, and he carried many letters, and he gave me one of them. I read the heading: 'The Voice of the Irish.' As I began the letter, I imagined in that moment that I heard the voice of those very people who were near the wood of Foclut, which is beside the western sea, and they cried out, as with one voice: 'We appeal to you, holy servant boy, to come and walk among us.'"

The vision prompted his studies for the priesthood. He was ordained by St. Germanus, the Bishop of Auxerre, whom he had studied under for years, and was later ordained a bishop and sent to take the Gospel to Ireland.

Patrick arrived in Slane, Ireland on March 25, 433. There are several legends about what happened next, with the most prominent claiming he met the chieftain of one of the druid tribes, who tried to kill him. However, Patrick was able to convert the chieftain and preach throughout Ireland. There, he converted many people, eventually thousands, and he began building churches across the country.

He often used shamrocks to explain the Holy Trinity and entire kingdoms were eventually converted to Christianity after hearing Patrick's message. Patrick preached in Ireland for 40 years. After years of living in poverty, traveling and enduring much suffering, he died March 17, 461. He died at Saul, where he had built the first Irish church. He is believed to be buried in Down Cathedral, Downpatrick. His grave was marked in 1990 with a granite stone.

AH, THE GRANDEST OF ALL HOLIDAYS — WHEN THE IRISH, AND THOSE THAT WISH THEY WERE, GATHER TO CELEBRATE SAINT PATRICK AND EVERYTHING IRISH. IT FALLS ON MARCH 17 EVERY YEAR, WHEN FOLKS ARE CELEBRATING IRISH CULTURE.

IT'S THE FEAST DAY OF THE PATRON SAINT OF IRELAND AND IN THAT SPIRIT HERE IS A SAMPLE OF IRISH BLESSINGS:

"MAY THE ROAD RISE UP TO MEET YOU. MAY THE WIND BE ALWAYS AT YOUR BACK."

"MAY THE ROOF ABOVE US NEVER FALL IN. AND MAY THE FRIENDS FATHERED BELOW IT NEVER FALL OUT."

"A WISH THAT EVERY DAY FOR YOU WILL BE HAPPY FROM THE START AND MAY YOU ALWAYS HAVE GOOD LUCK AND A SONG WITHIN YOUR HEART."

"MAY YOUR BLESSINGS OUTNUMBER THE SHAMROCKS THAT GROW. AND MAY TROUBLE AVOID YOU WHEREVER YOU GO."

"FOR EACH PETAL ON THE SHAMROCK, THIS BRINGS A WISH YOUR WAY: GOOD HEALTH, GOOD LUCK, AND HAPPINESS FOR TODAY AND EVERY DAY."

"MAY YOUR POCKETS BE HEAVY AND YOUR HEART BE LIGHT, MAY GOOD LUCK PURSUE YOU EACH MORNING AND NIGHT."

"MAY YOUR TROUBLES BE LESS, AND YOUR BLESSINGS BE MORE, AND NOTHING BUT HAPPINESS COME THROUGH YOUR DOOR."

"MAY YOUR HOME ALWAYS BE TOO SMALL TO HOLD ALL YOUR FRIENDS."

"MAY YOU HAVE THE HINDSIGHT TO KNOW WHERE YOU'VE BEEN, THE FORESIGHT TO KNOW WHERE YOU ARE GOING, AND THE INSIGHT TO KNOW WHEN YOU HAVE GONE TOO FAR."

"The most compelling, most soulful Irish traditional folk band playing today"
